Addendum to 1.2.A Enhanced Outreach to Women Veterans and Veterans of Color – Background/Access to Service, Needs Report /Plan Review

Terry Mark, King County Department of Community and Human Services, Deputy Director and Community Services Division, Acting Director, introduced the team convened to review the needs and service access data for the Enhanced Outreach to Women Veterans and Veterans of Color activity and manage the planned Request-for-Proposal (RFP) process. The team includes Linda Wells, the new program manager for Activity 1.2.A who revised the plan to be reviewed with the VCLOB members today. After today's review, the revised plan will be posted on the King County Levy website for public comment for one week.

Jon Hoskins, Manager of the Performance Measurement and Evaluation Unit in the Community Services Division provided an overview of the data document he prepared and had distributed to board members: Access to Services/Need for Outreach and Engagement for Veterans of Color and Women.

Linda Wells, Program Manager for the Community Services Division including Levy Activity 1.2.A, reviewed the updated implementation plan with VCLOB members.

Discussion

Staff provided answers to board member questions.

Next Steps

- The updated plan will be posted on the King County Levy website for public comment for one week.
- If there are public comments, staff will propose how the comments can be addressed in the plan.
- The VCLOB will meet on October 11, 2012 to review any changes proposed to the implementation plan based on public comments. If there are no changes, the board can proceed with their final review of the plan.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 4:25 pm.
